REF: CLARIFICATION NO: 1

Dear Bidder,

APPOINTMENT OF A PROFESSIONAL SERVICE PROVIDER TO PROVIDE SNAKE AWARENESS, SNAKE IDENTIFICATION, AND SNAKE HANDLING TRAINING; RFQ NO: 031/2026/EWSS/TRAINING/RFQ

During the RFQ clarification period, clarifications raised and were responded to as follows:

#	CLARIFICATION	TCTA'S RESPONSE
1. 1	Our course is a combined program covering Snake Awareness (identification) and First Aid for Snakebite. These are not offered as separate courses. Can the bidder quote only for in-person training, since handling venomous snakes cannot be taught online?	Bidder pricing submissions must comply with the RFQ Pricing Schedule requirements. Bidders are required to provide separate pricing for both service delivery modes: In Person: (Insert Price) and Online: (Insert Price) . This ensures compliance with the RFQ stipulation that both categories must be priced. Failure to provide pricing for both will result in the bid being declared as non-responsive. Accordingly, bidders must provide separate pricing for the online and in-person training sessions. TCTA will select the mode of delivery for each training required.
2.	Supplier Position For on-site training, we require a minimum of 10 delegates. Where fewer than 10 delegates attend, we will charge the equivalent amount for 10 delegates. Accordingly, we cannot agree to the RFQ term stating that " Bidders will invoice based on the actual number of attendees attending the training event " for in-person courses booked	Each training session is scheduled for 10 attendees, in line with the pricing schedule provided. Where this number cannot be met, a minimum of 6 participants must be present, as indicated on page 2 of the RFQ document. Accordingly, the successful bidder will invoice based on the minimum of 6 attendees. The amount invoiced for training will increase with the number of attendees.
3.	Please provide the training locations . This information is required to ensure accurate quoting, as we must make provisions for travel and	The primary site for in-person training will be the TCTA Head Office Centurion and Clarens in Free State .
